Happy New Year to you all. In class, we are reading a book called 'The Pied Piper of Hamelin', written by Michael Morpurgo. There is a task below in the box. If your child is able to do this independently, let them, but

Due to the shock of the rat invasion, the journalist has made several typos where all the letters belong in each word but have been slightly jumbled. Can you help spell the words correctly? Look up and check the correct spellings in a dictionary or online and write them out correctly below.

A gruop of rats have been running thorough the town of Hamelin. Tourist giude, Peter Kluike said he could not reemmberr the last time the town was in such compleet chaos. 'This is an extermee problem', he said. The townspeople are eagerly waiting for the rat-catcher to arirve.

The correct spellings are:

- 1.
